Description

BUFF brand neckerchief. The multifunctional scarf will attract attention with its modern design. It is an excellent choice for high-intensity outdoor activities such as running, trekking, bouldering, hiking, horse riding, cycling or riding a motorcycle. Thanks to the universal size and highly elastic Ultra Stretch material, it fits everyone well.

Buff scarf is synonymous with comfort when wearing. The bandana protects against ultraviolet radiation . The scarf for both ladies and gentlemen is designed with an emphasis on better sustainability, using exclusively polyester microfiber obtained from transparent plastic recycled bottles supplied and certified by REPREEVE®.
