Description

Scarf brand BUFF. Lightweight multifunctional neck scarf made of 100% merino wool. Natural merino wool is soft to the touch and naturally resists odors. The main advantage of merino wool is its excellent thermoregulatory properties.

The multifunctional scarf in soft pink design can be worn in many ways. It can be used as a headband, bandana or veil. The buff scarf prevents the growth of bacteria and thus the formation of odors. Perfect for low-intensity activities such as hiking or horseback riding.
