Description

Adidas women's shoes. Women's sneakers have a universal white color, which is complemented by colorful adidas three stripes. So you can easily combine them with any outfit. White women's sneakers have a durable upper. The classic cut fits well on any leg and you can customize them thanks to the laces.

The branded sneakers are comfortable thanks to the padded collar and soft inner insole. The cushioning midsole provides comfort with every step. Adidas boots for ladies have a rubber sole that adheres well to the surface. They are also made from recycled Primegreen materials. Their retro look goes well with jeans, trousers or skirts, even with summer dresses. adidas sneakers are suitable for school, work or leisure.
